

Created and Recreated

Based on Heidelberg Catechism, Lord's Day 3, Q. 6–8

1. Cre - at - ed good by God Him - self In right - eous - ness and ho - li - ness;
2. How fall - en, e - vil, dead, de - praved, Cor - rupt - ed, lost, and sin - en - slaved,
3. Re - gen - er - at - ed, made a - live, Cre - at - ed new by God in love,

<sup>4</sup>
Dust of the earth— i - ma - go Dei! God made the man for hap - pi - ness.
In - clined to wick - ed - ness, un - clean, Since our first par - ents dis - o - beyed.
Raised up with Christ, by grace now saved Through faith— a gift from God a - bove.

<sup>8</sup>
To know and love and live with God, To glo - ri - fy and praise His Name,
By one man sin came in this world And so death passed un - to all men;
Re - stored in Christ who is our life; Re - newed to bear His Im - age true;

<sup>12</sup>
The Lord set man in Par - a - dise: Per - fec - tion, beau - ty, bliss their claim.
Our na - ture so cor - rupt— un - less God's Spir - it grants us birth a - gain.
Now blame - less, ho - ly, un - re - proved; Com - plete in Him, I'm whol - ly new!

Music: William B. Bradbury, 1861
Text: Paul Wagenaar, 2025 © 2025, Paul Wagenaar

SWEET HOUR
8 8 . 8 8 . 8 8 . 8 8 .