Based on Heidelberg Catechism, Lord's Day 29, Q. 78–79

1. Christ is the Bread of Life; He says, Come, take and eat;
2. As bap - tism's — per - formed The wa - ter is not blood,
3. Here is a sol - emn pledge: That just as we par - take,

Christ bids us drink the cup; Here is the gos - pel feast:
So din - ing with the Lord, The el - e - ments are food:
Re - ceiv - ing with our mouths These el - e - ments by faith:

Com - mun - ion with the blood of Christ; Our souls fed to e - ter - nal life.
The bread and wine are not trans - formed, But are God's signs, our faith con - firmed.
Christ's suf - f' rings and o - be - di - ence Are ours as if we paid for sins.
