

Resurrection Power

Based on Heidelberg Catechism, Lord's Day 17, Q. 45

1. The res - ur - rec - tion of our Lord and Sav - iour Je - sus Christ:
2. Christ's res - ur - rec - tion prof - its us, for we are al - so raised,

He makes us share His right - eous - ness; for us He paid the price;
And by His res - ur - rec - tion pow'r new life to us He gave;

For by His death and res - ur - rec - tion He has o - ver - come,
The res - ur - rec - tion is a pledge that we will al - so rise;

And when the stone was rolled a - way the vic - to - ry was won!
Our mor - tal bod - ies from the grave are raised to glo - rious life!

Yes, Je - sus rose up from the dead, Yes, Je - sus rose up from the dead,

²⁰

Yes, Je - sus rose up from the dead, He rose up on that day!

²⁴

And Je - sus con-quired death and hell, And Je - sus con-quired death and hell,

²⁸

And Je - sus con-quired death and hell, As He rose from the grave!
